Intent to Publish: “Pig War” (WT) by Paul Nelson

Paul Nelson,

Dark Coast Press is expressly interested in reviewing your full-length poetry manuscript entitled, “Pig War” for publication. I am a supporter of your writing, both in function and aesthetic, and believe the social, natural, spiritual and ultimately artistic intersections are among the most meaningful and interesting of our generation. This work provides many accessible entry points and is sure to appeal to a wide range of readers.

I hope that our interest in “Pig War” proceeds accordingly, and that this may be followed by the foundation of an exciting relationship between publisher and author. We sincerely appreciate the opportunity to consider your work for publication.

Best,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Jarret Middleton". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Jarret" written in a larger, more prominent script than the last name "Middleton".
