

ORGANIC POETRY WORKSHOP

WITH SEATTLE POET
PAUL NELSON

Personal Mythology of Organic Poetry

This is an entertaining workshop for serious writers of all levels of experience and includes lively discussions and sound from interviews with poets McClure, Myles, Rothenberg, Ginsberg, Waldman. Through a series of intensifying creative writing exercises over the four hour course, you will develop an understanding of your own personal mythology and write at that deeper level of consciousness using spontaneous writing exercises and prompts. A single session of 4 hours, this workshop takes participants to a deeper level in their writing that can be intense, but extremely liberating.

Monday: May 13 from 9:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M.
