

60. Hymn to Indian Plum

The interlocking hearts carved on benches are the cheap wedding vows of seducers.

– Ramón Gomez de la Serna

& the book as spiritual instrument will not itself thicken your knowledge (will knot itself) will not itself allow yr vision to penetrate the evergreen nor the cliff above Obstruction will not itself lift you up out of animal blinders or make luminous the February witch hazel's view or the perched Anna's Hummingbird or the frail first candleflames of the Indian Plum, no.

Might make a fine window (widow?) to jump in & see the Light of the Supreme Lamp of Universal Virtue or Lion Banner of Universal Light, might be an in to the Subtle Light of Flames of Universal Jewels or the Banner of Oceans of Qualities of Universal Sounds. Cd open my February window and hear waves below bushtit chatter or starling gossip & jet engine wash. Maybe wait for a day when (through practice practice practice) could envision hearing the Pleasing Voice of Universal Awareness or the Undefined Treasury of Light of Oceans of Cloudlike Sounds.

Could make a topknot of that.
Cd imagine it instead of a whorl of pheromones or a goatskin jailcell in which to feel the beatdown of bruxism. Could envision a Light Banner of Fragrant Flames each morning, before yoga & truckgrowl before slaughter and dehydration before the animal inside aware of extensive root systems & their eloquent oceans of concentrations that sometimes emit the scent of magnolia blossoms or jalapeño or jasmine.

Pick a vow
at least as radiant

as the first leafshoots of the February
Indian Plum.
